

Concurrent Session Titles
WAIE Conference
Friday, April 12, 2019

Education Abroad

- Going Beyond "It Was Awesome!" - Speaking Meaningfully About Study Abroad
- Adventures in Advising!
- Tackling Financial Barriers to Study Abroad
- Marketing Ideas Roundtable
- Bridging the Gap
- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- A Critical Collaboration with Students of Concern: Study Abroad and the Dean of Students Office
- Empowering Study Abroad Students through a Public Engagement Framework
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education
- Foundations for Innovative Messaging

International Student & Scholar Services

- SEVP At A Glance
- The Who? Why? and How? Of Short-Term International Programming
- Global Buddies - Meeting the cultural needs of your campus!
- Case Studies on USCIS's New Unlawful Presence Policy
- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- From Enquiry to Employment: Guiding International Students To Success
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- Advising international students who are "out of status"
- Beyond a Brochure: Sexual Assault Awareness Training for International Students
- Balancing Student Expectations and Good Customer Service
- Making Sense of Unlawful Presence in Advising Practice
- Campus Connections: A Collaborative Approach to International Student Career Development
- Beyond International Student Orientation – 3 Examples of a First Year Seminar Class for New International Students
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education
- Foundations for Innovative Messaging

Recruitment, Admissions & Credential Evaluation

- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- Turkey as a Regional Hub for International Recruitment
- Admitting students from in-progress transnational secondary programs
- From Enquiry to Employment: Guiding International Students To Success
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- Speaking Their Language - Making the Most of Marketing Materials
- Evaluating International Transfer Applications, Transcripts, and Credits (Oh my!)
- Admissions Twilight Zone: Risk Management in Credential Evaluation
- Verifying the Authenticity of International Academic Credentials
- Roundtable with StudyWisconsin Government Liaisons
- Fact and Fiction: Demystifying the Chinese Educational System
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education
- Foundations for Innovative Messaging

English as a Second Language/Intensive English Programs

- The Who? Why? and How? Of Short-Term International Programming
- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education
- Foundations for Innovative Messaging

Teaching, Learning & Scholarship

- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- From Enquiry to Employment: Guiding International Students To Success
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- Beyond International Student Orientation – 3 Examples of a First Year Seminar Class for New International Students
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education

Session Titles Cross-Listed in All Knowledge Communities

- Show me the Money: Using accounting principles in international education financial management
- How do we maintain balance and sanity in these highly challenging times?
- Year-Round Advocacy in International Education
- Foundations for Innovative Messaging